The Freshman Orientation Program for the First Year B.A. and B.Com students of Mount Mary College, Chümoukedima, Nagaland, was held on May 31, 2024, at 9:00 AM at the Yashipokla Memorial Auditorium.

Objectives of the Event:

The orientation was organized with the objective of welcoming new students to the college, helping them understand the academic environment, and familiarizing them with the institution's rules, facilities, and opportunities. It also aimed to inspire and prepare the students for a successful and fulfilling college journey.

Highlights of the Event:

The program began with Mr. Dokina Das from the Department of Commerce serving as the compere, maintaining the flow of the event with clarity and warmth. This was followed by an Invocation prayer offered by Ms. Kamphula, Prayer Secretary of EUMMC, seeking blessings for the new academic year and the students embarking on their college life. A Welcome Address was then delivered by Dr. T.K. Jana, Principal of Mount Mary College, who warmly greeted the new students and introduced them to the college's vision, values, and academic expectations.

The Exhortation was delivered by Dr. C. Teeya Imsong, Managing Director of Mount Mary College. Through her encouraging words, she motivated the students to embrace the new chapter of their academic journey with dedication, discipline, and enthusiasm. The orientation segment of the program featured important insights shared by key college representatives: Mr. Lipokchiten, Administrator of MMC; Mr. Mridul Gurung, speaking on behalf of the IQAC Coordinator; Mr. Vikipu Kinny, President of SCMMC; and Mr. Achumba, President of EUMMC. Each speaker provided valuable information regarding academic standards, campus life, student organizations, and the support systems available at the college.

Outcome of the Event:

The orientation session proved to be a great success, achieving its purpose of easing the transition of new students into the college environment. It equipped the students with essential information and instilled in them a sense of belonging and excitement for their new academic journey. The event was met with positive feedback from both faculty and students, ensuring that the freshmen felt welcomed, prepared, and motivated to begin their studies at Mount Mary College.

Report on International youth day, 2024

Date: 12th August, 2024

Time: 1:00 PM

Venue: AV ROOM

Organized by: Event Committee, MMC

Objectives of the Event:

The main objective of organising and celebrating international youth day is to raise awareness about youth issues and challenges. The day provides an opportunity to highlight the challenges and issues faced by young people, such as unemployment, digital technology, mental health, education, and climate change. It encourages students to reflect on these topics and understand their significance in the modern world.

The primary objective of celebrating international youth day is also to inspire students to recognize their potential and become active participants in society. It can also serve as a platform to discuss how young people can use their voices and actions to drive positive change locally and globally.

Highlights of the Event:

The Event Committee, Mount Mary College, along with the teaching faculty of MMC observed International Youth Day on 12th August, 2024 under the theme: "From Clicks to Progress: Youth Digital Pathways for Sustainable Development". Fifteen Students have positively participated in a speech competition on the topic: "The Role of Digital Technology in Reshaping the Lives Of Youth".

The judge for the speech competition were:

1. Dr. T.K. Jana, Principal, MMC
2. Sir Basant Giri, Asst. Prof. Dept. of History
3. Miss Sentitula, Asst. Prof. Dept. of Sociology
4. Miss Rülileü, Asst. Prof. Dept. of English
5. Miss Moamenla, Asst. Prof. Dept. of English
6. Miss Phewang, Asst. Prof. Dept. of Political Science.

Outcome of the Event:

The Event could enable students to gain a better understanding of the global and local youth issues and be aware about their role and empower them to take leadership roles in social change and community building.

Overall the event was productive and it was a resounding success.

Objectives of the Event:

The 10th Cultural Day was organised with the intention of honoring and celebrating the rich cultural traditions of the region under the theme "Reminiscing Heritage". The primary objective was to encourage students to reflect on, reconnect with, and take pride in their indigenous roots and customs. The event aimed to create awareness about traditional knowledge systems, valued, and art forms, while also promoting cultural preservation and intercommunity harmony. By engaging students in cultural displays and performances, the college sought to instill a strong sense of identity, belonging, and respect for heritage.

Event Highlights:

The opening ceremony was compered by Ms. Viedaone and began with an invocation by Mharon Kikon, President of EUMMC. This was followed by a welcome address from Dr. C. Teeya Imsong, Managing Director of Mount Mary College, who set the tone for the day's celebrations by highlighting the significance of heritage in shaping individual and collective identity.

A vibrant display of traditional attires showcased the diversity and richness of the various tribes and communities represented by the students. This was followed by an exhortation by Dr. M Chuba Ao, Chairman of MMC, emphasizing the importance of passing on cultural values to future generations.

Cultural presentations by the Tenyimi students' Union (folk song) and the Eastern Students' Union (folk drama) added depth and color to the celebration. These performances were deeply rooted in tradition, capturing the oral histories, customs, and community life of the Naga people.

The keynote speech by Shri. Dr. S.C. Jamir, the Guest of Honour, was a highlight of the ceremony. He spoke on the value of cultural memory, unity in diversity, and the role of the youth in preserving indigenous heritage.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Mr. Lipokchiten, Administrator of MMC, and a benediction offered by Ms. Shilurenla, EU Advisor and Assistant Professor, MMC.

After the formal program, the audience was invited to the traditional Cuisine Display Competition, Judged by Mrs. Imnasenla Aier and Dr. C. Teeya Imsong. This segment further emphasized the theme by allowing students to engage with traditional food preparation and presentation.

The second session of the cultural Extravaganza began at 2:00 PM and was compered by Ms. Bendangwala and Mr. Charles Crezen. The program kicked off with traditional performances including the "Suh-Tah Lam" (Kuki Bamboo Dance) and "Arr Tsüngsang" by the Ao Students' Union, both of which captivated the audience with their vibrant energy and cultural significance.

After a short break, the event moved into its competitive segment, featuring a variety of traditional contests such as:

- Pork Fat & Naga King Chilli Eating Competition
- Bamboo Cutting
- Wary Cry
- Traditional Fire Making

- Winnowing

These events highlighted the endurance, skills, and cultural pride associated with traditional practices. The competitions also served as an educational experience, especially for those unfamiliar with certain customs and methods.

Closing Ceremony

The event Culminated in a closing ceremony chaired by Ms. Akangrenla Walling, ANCSU Representative. Prizes were awarded to winners of the various competitions, acknowledging their efforts and performances. Mr. Lishethong, President of SCMMC, gave the vote of thanks, appreciating the enthusiasm of the participants, the organizers, and the college leadership for supporting such a meaningful initiative.

The day concluded with the signing of the college Anthem, followed by a communal recitation of the Lord's Prayer, signifying unity and shared gratitude.

Outcome of the Event

The 10th Cultural Day proved to be a resounding success, achieving its aim of celebrating and preserving indigenous heritage in an educational and enjoyable manner. Students gained first hand exposure to traditional practices and values, and many expressed a new found respect for their cultural roots. The event fostered a strong sense of identity, pride, and belonging among the student body. It also promoted camaraderie and collaboration between different student groups, strengthening the overall spirit of the college community.

By Combining performance, competition, and reflection, the program effectively created a space for cultural expression, intergenerational learning, and collective celebration making it a memorable and enriching experience for all involved.
